

THE GLOBAL CLASS

Jennifer Barkley

Jennifer Barkley is the Program Coordinator, Field Placement Coordinator and part time instructor of the Graduate Victimology Certificate at Algonquin College in Ottawa, Canada. She holds a B.A. Honours in Criminology, with a minor in Forensic Psychology from Carleton University, and a Post-Graduate Certificate in Victimology from Algonquin College. As a research associate in a partnership between Algonquin College and the Victim Justice Network, for a Canada-wide study on resilience and victims of violence, she strives to enhance the assistance provided to victims. Engaged in public speaking about a murder in her own family, Jennifer promotes an increased understanding of the journey encountered by victims following violence. Victim-centered care is close to Jennifer's heart and provides the focus of her professional path.